KC Chiefs wide receivers Chris Conley and Albert Wilson are working with us to form the “Catch a Break” fund to help families or individuals in need. Every time one of these receivers makes a catch during the game, they will donate $100 to the fund. Last year, the two had 52 receptions between them.

There are two easy ways you can get involved. For a donation of $150 to the “Catch a Break” fund, you will receive a ticket to the bar-b-que dinner catered by Zarda as well as a special “Catch a Break” sweatshirt. This dinner will be later in the season and attended by both Chris and Albert. Dinner will be served in the same dining room of our community kitchen where we feed 250 each night. If you can’t attend the dinner, you can make a donation to our “Catch a Break” fund to help those in need.

An anonymous donor has already donated $5,000 to this fund. The first disbursement from the “Catch a Break” fund went to several teenage boys who are in foster care at a group home. They needed shoes and clothes for the start of the school year.

We’ll keep you updated on the people you help “Catch a Break” on our website and through other media. Go to www.bishopssullivan.org/catch-a-break to donate or buy a ticket to the dinner. There are only 100 seats available at the dinner - sign up early to reserve your seat.
UNIQUE GIFT
SPONSOR A NIGHT IN OUR COMMUNITY KITCHEN

What do you give to a loved one for his or her birthday, anniversary or Christmas when he or she already has everything?

You might consider sponsoring a night at our community kitchen in their name.

Every Monday through Friday night, about 250 people come for a hot meal. $150 will feed each person who comes for dinner. We post the name of the person for whom the meal is in honor or memory of in the dining room. After the meal is served, your loved one will receive a copy of the sign along with the total meals served and the menu.

If you would like to sponsor a meal in honor or memory of someone you can easily do so at www.bishop sullivan.org/sponsor-a-night.

I’m sure your loved one will appreciate the unique gift and that you thought of them in a charitable fashion.

TAX CREDITS AVAILABLE FOR DONATIONS TO BISHOP SULLIVAN CENTER

The State of Missouri, in its effort to support people in need of food, offers a tax credit – better than a mere deduction – to any Missouri tax-filer who donates money to a food pantry in Missouri. Bishop Sullivan Center operates two large food pantries, and therefore, donations here qualify.

The state has set aside a little more than a million dollars to give back to such donors. According to the Missouri Department of Revenue website, “Any taxpayer (individual, corporation, or trust) that makes a donation of cash or food supplies to a food pantry may receive a credit of up to $2,500 per taxpayer per year. The taxpayer may take a credit of 50 percent of their donations.” For more details go to www.bishopsullivan.org/missouri-tax-credit or consult your tax advisor.

Follow us on social media to keep up with the Center, learn about whom we serve and see the difference your support makes.
